London, Tampere (Finland) and Riyadh (Saudi Arabia) are the latest additions to the COAC correspondents' network.

You can now access information on our website [2], including detailed profiles of the new correspondents (Maria Giramé, Laura Vivet and Jaime Torres), as well as information on exercising the profession in each country.

With the addition of three new members, our network has now 30 correspondents, whose aim is to increase opportunities to work abroad while at the same time maintaining ties with Catalonia and Catalan architects.
