Times are changing rapidly and so is our profession. The traditional figure of the architect is being transformed into an increasingly diversified and more open profession, in which young professionals are constantly reinventing themselves and taking advantage of the diversity of knowledge provided by architectural studies and their application in other fields.

In an ever more global world that is constantly changing, channels of communication have become essential tools for carving out a niche in the labour market. The task of communicating has become a hugely important tool in the profession of the architect, and this knowledge is not necessarily available in universities.

mARQet was established with the specific objective of helping young architects in this challenging task of communication?and what better channel could there be than the market itself, the epitome of trade?

Following the success of its first edition, mARQet aims to continue providing support and improving year after year. It has therefore been decided to transfer mARQet to Arts Santa Mònica, a central and very visible venue, accompanied by a series of side events both during the day and in the evening.

The Architects? Fair will take place on 24, 25 and 26 October, and all you need to do to participate is read the rules and submit your application. Places are open until every available space in Arts Santa Mònica has been filled.

mARQet will be held in the balcony hall, spilling over onto the outside ramp, highlighting its relationship with society and the outside world. The Catalan Government's support has helped the project grow and flourish, to demonstrate that the profession of the architect is about culture and that we need to nurture, protect and promote it. This year, mARQet coincides with the 9th edition of the AJAC Awards, organized every two years by the Association of Young Architects of Catalonia.

The prize-giving ceremony of the 9th AJAC Awards will be held at Arts Santa Mònica on the evening of Friday 24 October, as part of mARQet's programme of activities.

Curs de Disseny
d'espais exteriors
i petits jardins

Dilluns 27 d'octubre comença el curs de Disseny d'espais exteriors i petits jardins, un curs de 16 hores de durada molt instrumental que et facilitarà els coneixements necessaris per projectar i construir petits projectes d'espai exterior i paisatge, des del petit jardí al condicionament dels exteriors de qualsevol projecte d'edificació. Assoleix el coneixement pràctic de les espècies vegetals, tècniques de jardí, solucions constructives i xarxes d'instal·lacions.

El disseny de jardins ha evolucionat molt al llarg de la història de la mà de les cultures que les creava i a Occident es converteix en una necessitat a partir de la massificació de les ciutats amb la Revolució Industrial. El moment actual ens demana projectar els nostres jardins amb criteris de màxima sostenibilitat, des de l'elecció de la vegetació als materials d'acabat, no només per qüestions econòmiques o pressupostàries, sinó biològiques i de manteniment. L'escala que abordarà el curs serà petita però amb la màxima aplicabilitat possible.

Les dates del curs són els dilluns 27 d'octubre, 3, 10 i 17 de novembre de 16 a 20 h.

As part of the events associated with World Architecture Day, the exhibition entitled 'Jujol Arquitecte' opened on Monday, 6 October, at 7 pm in the mezzanine of the COAC. The exhibition features an exceptional selection of Jujol's plans and original drawings from the COAC's Historical Archive as well as others lent by the Jujol Archives, representing some of the architect's most interesting work.

The exhibition is very educational, providing an overview of Jujol's work in the form of 25 mobile panels. It also showcases his better-known plans and original drawings such as Casa Negre and Torre de la Creu in Sant Joan Despí and Casa Planells and the monumental fountain in Plaça d'Espanya in Barcelona, alongside other less well-known work such as the stained-glass windows that Jujol created for the church of Vistabella and the drawings for Casa Bofarull in Els Pallaresos, rounding off a rich and extensive overview of his important professional work.

“Jujol Arquitecte” is the first in a series of exhibitions featuring material held in the Historical Archive, revealing the rich documentary heritage of the COAC. It can be visited in the COAC's mezzanine from 7 to 30 October 2014.
